This is the day the Lord has made,
Let us Rejoice and be glad.
-Psalm 118:24

“Rejoice and Be Glad” is the title of the recently published Apostolic Exhortation written by Pope Francis. An apostolic exhortation is a communication from the Pope encouraging people to take on an activity or effort. It does not define doctrine. Apostolic exhortations are commonly used by Popes to respond to a topic studied by an assembly of the Synod of Bishops.

In 2013, Pope Francis issued an apostolic exhortation entitled, “The Joy of the Gospel.” In this document, the Pope discusses the primary mission of the Church is that of evangelization in the modern world. He is calling on all of us to embrace the call to evangelization, sharing the Good News of the Gospel with others.

In 2016, Pope Francis issued an apostolic exhortation entitled, “On Love in the Family.” In this document, he discusses the challenges of family life, the role of the Church to accompany families and the meaning and importance of love. He is calling on all of us to take to heart the message of Jesus--to love God and love your neighbor as yourself. Love is at the center of Christian life.

This 2018 publication, “Rejoice and Be Glad,” discusses what it means to be holy. We are all called to holiness. The Second Vatican Council stated this clearly: “Strengthened by so many and such great means of salvation, all the faithful, whatever their condition or state, are called by the Lord---each in his own way---to that perfect holiness by which the Father himself is perfect.”

Over the next few weeks, we will summarize and discuss the key points made by Pope Francis in this apostolic exhortation. At the beginning of the document, our Pope writes, “My modest goal is to re-propose the call to holiness in a practical way for our own time, with all its risks, challenges and opportunities.” The title of this publication reflects the message of Easter: Rejoice and be glad, He is Risen!

Justice & Charity Survey

In 2015, our parish adopted a new Pastoral Plan, entitled Shaping Our Future. The plan was designed to provide a long-range focus for our community as we continue on our journey of faith that compels us to seek new and better ways to bear witness to the Gospel message of love, compassion, and mercy. The plan focuses on several areas of witness including our call to justice and charity and calls for identifying special charitable and social justice areas that can be supported by the parish as a whole. To this end, we will be asking you, this weekend, during each Mass, to complete a short survey that will help us to identify which charity-based and social justice interests you think we, as a parish should consider. We last conducted a similar survey in April 2016, two years ago. During these last two years, our priority has been homelessness, hunger, affordable housing, and poverty. Those issues will certainly remain part of our work; however, we also acknowledge that our nation, our city and our parish community have undergone major changes in this time. For that reason, we feel that a new survey is timely and will help guide our efforts in the year to come.

The survey will also be emailed to parishioners using our email blast system on April 30th. The following parishioners and staff members serve on our Justice & Charity Commission; Evie Dwyer, Bob Thompson, Nany Galli, Mariano Dagang, Liz Vugrinecz, Sabrina Harper, Deacon Rich Foley and Deacon David Rolandelli.

GIFT: Generations in Faith Together

For families, but not limited to just families, GIFT gatherings are our intergenerational approach to Faith Formation. Gatherings are held two times each month, on a Sunday afternoon, then repeated on Wednesday evening. At each gathering, there is a meal, opening prayer and introduction of the topic. Families participate in the activities and discussion, sometimes in a large group setting, sometimes in break-out groups by family or age range.

Topics are presented in such a way as to coach parents in the practice of catechizing their own children. GIFT is intended to complement liturgical events and other parish activities.

All families who have school aged children are invited to attend these gatherings and encouraged to participate each year.

Our last gatherings for the 2017-2018 year will be on Sunday, April 29th from 11:30-1:30 pm and repeated on Wednesday, May 2nd from 6:00-8:00 pm. We take a break during the summer months, and begin registering for the upcoming year in August. If you have not attended previously, you are welcome to attend these last gatherings!

Ecuador Mission Trip Dinner

Thank you to all who attended our fundraising dinner last Saturday night! We thank them and their families who invited guests and other family members to an evening of good food and fun! We also thank the adult volunteers who came to help, Cheri Girardot, Filippo Adamo, Carmella Huser, and Nadine Fletcher. We raised almost $1900 which will help offset the cost of this trip for the families.

There are seven boys who are going on the trip this year from June 19-July 4th. They are: Benjamin Schembri, Ryan McAfee, Ryan Trube, Charlie Gillet, Chicco Adamo, Brendan E. Smith and Brendan P. Smith and three chaperones: Maria Cornell, Sabrina Harper and Sam Hutkins.

We've been doing this trip every other year, since 2010. The group visits and works at Damien House, a home for patients with Hansen's disease in Guayaquil, Ecuador. There, they accompany Sr. Annie Credidio, BVM as she ministers to the elderly who are afflicted with this debilitating disease.

Also part of the trip is time spent at the Working Boys' Center: A Family of Families in Quito, Ecuador. Founded over 60 years ago by Jesuit priest Fr. John Halligan, SJ and operated by Sr. Cindy Sullivan and Sr. Miguel, members of the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Center provides educational and vocational training for the poorest of the poor in and around Quito.

In June, we'll be hosting a collection of items for the Working Boys' Center and Damien House. Watch for more details about that. And on Father's Day, Sunday, June 17th the group will be assembled at the 10:30 am Mass for a special blessing for the trip.
