St. Matthias is a Roman Catholic Community striving to respond to the call of Jesus through worship and sacraments, faith formation, service, and social opportunities.

Under the guidance of the parish administrator and pastoral staff, we seek to strengthen current lay leadership and develop and empower new leadership.

Although a small parish, we commit ourselves and parish programs to hospitality, generosity to those in need, and outreach to all those seeking a faith community.

As Catholics, we recognize the many challenges facing the Church, but we trust in the Holy Spirit to guide us into the future.

Father Tom's Column

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

The eminent writer David Brooks, the New York Times columnist and author of The Road of Character, wrote: "Recently I've been thinking about the difference between the resume virtues and the eulogy virtues. The resume virtues are the ones you list on your resume, the skills that you bring to the job market and that contribute to external success. The eulogy virtues are deeper. They're the ones that get talked about at your funeral, the ones that exit at the core of your being—whether you are kind, brave, honest or faithful; what kind of relationships you formed." These words are particularly relevant as over the past two weeks we have come together as a community to grieve, support and love the family of Blake Bottarini. Blake, a senior at Junipero Serra High School, parishioner here at St. Matthias, son of Ross and Julie and twin brother of Evan, was tragically killed in a car accident on his way to school. It has been truly extraordinary to see how many people came together to show what it means to love and serve others. I am so proud and grateful to our parish staff as well as those of St. Pius whose generosity and care went a long way in helping to honor Blake and his family as we celebrated his Funeral Mass at St. Pius on September 6th.

I have the privilege of knowing many Serra families through my various ministries on the Peninsula. One of Blake's classmates spoke with me after the funeral. He said, "Father Tom, anybody but Blake. You don't understand. He was just so good, so kind, so giving...anybody but him." The emotional and spiritual pain showed so vividly in this young man's eyes. That image was expressed exponentially in the faces of the Serra students who came together to honor Blake. Yes, this is the natural fear and shock that conjures up doubt and anxiety...perhaps things are not so permanent after all. On a deeper level however, they came to honor the man who possessed the qualities about which David Brooks speaks: Kindness, bravery, honesty, faithfulness, the depth and quality of relationships.

Mark's Gospel today has Jesus posing this question to his disciples: "Who do people say that I am?" They respond, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." He then asks them, "But who do YOU say that I am?" This is a central question that defines who Jesus is to his disciples. He is introducing them to the reality that as the Son of God he will have to suffer, indeed lose his very self, in order to fulfill His Father's mission for him. Naturally, Peter and the others want Jesus to be the Christ without paying the cost. Jesus himself rebukes the disciples because not surrendering HIS WILL is contrary to the relationship between Jesus and His Father. Ironically, it is that very surrender that gives hope and encouragement. "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." When we follow Jesus Christ, when we let go of our own egoism and self-preservation for service in the Kingdom, then we reflect in our lives what it means to be Christ-like.

Bible Study

Paul's Letter to the Romans

Since Paul's letters are a part of the New Testament and proclaimed at most Masses, no Christian has been unaffected by what he has written. Paul's letters provide further context and insights into the developments within the early Church as described in Acts of the Apostles. What can we learn from Paul's writings that will help each one of us to deepen our belief in a loving God and guide us to more fully live our Catholic Christian faith? Sessions will be on Monday's from 7-8:30 pm.

Santa Clara Faith Formation Conference

Friday, November 30 and Saturday, December 1, 2018 | Santa Clara Convention Center

Building Bridges of Hope is this year's theme for the Santa Clara Faith Formation Conference. This conference is not only for catechists, liturgists and lay ministers, but also for anyone interested in the church of today, in social justice issues, and just how to live our faith more deeply. Some examples of the sessions are:

Bishop Randolph Calvo Women Deacons: Sources

in Tradition and their Meaning Today

Ken Preston God Walks with Us: The Catholic Church's Response to the Refugee Crisis

Joe Paprocki Practicing a Living Faith—5 Principles that Shape a Robust Catholic Vision

Copies of the brochure are on the back table of church. Come and discover sharing faith with 3,000 other people from the Dioceses of San Jose, Monterey, San Francisco, Fresno, Oakland and Stockton. There are sessions in English, Spanish, Vietnamese and Chinese.

Town Hall Meeting

Thank you to all who attended our Town Hall Meeting last Sunday. We had about 120 parishioners in attendance following one Sunday Mass which was celebrated at 10:00 am. We are grateful for your presence and engagement during the meeting. Thank you to all who helped with the event especially, Marti Engh, Lynda Allen, Mary Schorr, Carol Clarke, Bob and Joanne Thompson, Sandi Machado and Nick and Marcy Corea (and anyone else who helped out)! Several comment cards were collected and we will be responding to your comments, suggestions and ideas in the bulletin in the next several weeks beginning this weekend.

One comment received said the following: "Your bulletin is beautiful. I think you could reduce costs by encouraging online bulletin, use less expensive paper, eliminate repetitive items."

Thank you for the compliment! We work hard on the bulletin each week—to include timely and important information in an attractive manner so that people will be interested and engaged in what we have to offer. Our bulletin publishing company, J.S. Paluch prints and delivers the bulletins to us each week. They contract with advertisers on the back cover and through the support of our advertisers, our bulletin is free to the parish. In fact, we receive an annual rebate from J.S. Paluch of $1,000! So, the bulletin doesn't cost St. Matthias anything, but rather helps our bottom line.
