Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Priesthood Sunday

Today in the United States the Church celebrates “Priesthood Sunday.” We are grateful for the generous service so many men have and continue to render unselfish service to the People of God. We are privileged to have with us this year two seminarians who are on their Pastoral Year. Zach Alspaugh and John Hwang are living at Saint Pius and serving both Saint Pius and Saint Matthias. I have asked them to share a reflection on their vocation story. Today we will read John’s story and next week Zach’s. I am so grateful the Lord has brought these brothers to us and please pray for our priests and for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Fr. Tom

My mother and aunt had a great influence on my vocation, most especially my aunt who is a religious sister. She always asked me to be a priest since I was very young, and growing up I thought that I had to be a priest. I had no doubts about joining the seminary and becoming a priest.

I really enjoyed my seminarian life even though it was really strict. After my sophomore year, I had to fulfill my military service for two years, which is an obligation for Korean men. One day, I watched a movie Notebook. One dialogue inspired me to think about what I wanted to be: “Would you stop thinking about what everyone wants and what your parents want. What do you want?” I was in a panic after watching the movie because I could not come up with any idea about what I really wanted. This is because I got so used to doing my duties in accordance with the commands and rules for four years.

I started doubting my vocation: “Do I want to be a priest?” Unfortunately, I could not say “yes” with confidence. Also, I recognized that my family wanted me to be a priest more than I wanted to be. I could not help but accept the fact that I was brainwashed. Then I started to pray to God that I might acknowledge which vocation God wanted for me, regardless of any expectation from other people such as my mother and aunt. I was sure that my vocation should be confirmed only between God and me at first. After a month of prayer, I attended a four-day retreat and I sincerely prayed and asked God to let me know his will: “Do You want me to be a priest?”

On the last night of the retreat, I was able to listen to his calling. Surprisingly, it was neither yes nor no. He did not say “you should be a priest” nor “you should not be a priest.” He just said to me: “You are my beloved son.” I started weeping. Everyone was compelling me to be a priest but God never did. He just loved me. Also, I realized that He was calling me through my family and people around me, gently but unceasingly, and I in return accepted the effect on my vocation from my family as a tremendous gift from God. He has always been devoted to me. I decided to say “yes” to his steadfast calling as his faithful servant and beloved son.

I went back to the seminary again after finishing my military service. After two years, the faculty asked me to go to the United States to finish my seminary coursework. I said “yes” because I was sure it was another calling from God as well as a great opportunity for me.

What is a Mass Intention?

A Mass Intention is a special way to honor a beloved friend or family members, whether in death, for healing, in celebration of a special day, or simply for prayers and guidance. If you would like to request a Mass Intention, please email lisa@stmatthiasparish.org, call 366-9544, or stop by the office to schedule it for any of our weekday/weekend Masses. Please note that the calendar fills up quickly for the weekends, but weekday Masses are generally available. We can one take ONE intention per Mass, so if you have a specific date in mind, it is a good idea to plan ahead. A $10 donation is suggested.

Prayer Tree Network

Our Prayer Tree Network is a very special group of people who regularly pray for the needs of the community. All may request prayer for a special need or intention for healing, grieving, discernment, strength, comfort or support by contacting our Prayer Tree Network. The members spend some time every day in prayer for the requests that are received. We are seeking more members to pray in this way. If you are interested in finding

Share Your Sewing Talent with Catherine Center

Parishioners, Claire Felong and Angie Sullivan spent many Fridays from 3-5 pm at Catherine Center, a safe house in Menlo Park, sharing sewing skills with the women who live there. We are seeking another sewer or two to become part of our group as it is good for us to have a core of 4-5 so that 2-3 can always be there on a given Friday. All the women have been incarcerated at some point in their lives,. All are recovering from addiction, all are happy to have this second chance to bring their lives together with concerted caring from counselors and therapists, spiritual directors and guidance from the community in areas including finance, health and beauty, nutrition and food prep among others. If interested, contact Claire Felong — Claire@redwoodhouse.com or 722-0366.
