Fr. Tom's Column

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Some years ago a Jesuit professor of mine suggested I read some of the theological works of Adrienne von Speyr. Von Speyr was born in Switzerland of Protestant parents who eventually converted to Catholicism under the guidance of the influential theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar. Speyr was a mother, medical doctor, mystic and writer who had great theological impact during the twentieth century. I purchased a few of her books from Ignatius Press. I begin to read one particular text and quickly realized it was very difficult to comprehend. The language was very complex and not easy for me to grasp. At the beginning of this Advent season, I decided to try reading her again.

As spiritual reading I chose to read Handmaid of the Lord. This is a very powerful reflection of the life of Mary and the various dimensions of her identity as Mother of God. In the chapter entitled "Expectation and Birth" von Speyr writes: "So too Mary's expectation, which summarizes in itself all the fearful, painful hope of the world, can intensify like a great vigil before the feast of the birth but can, in the birth itself, change to the perfect joy of Christmas which may not only receive the Child as the perfected gift of the Father but may also cooperate, in perfect joy, to bring it forth. What Mary could await only with perseverance and patience in the veiling of her faith during pregnancy is now given to her in a joy that infinitely surpasses all expectation."

In a very real sense, each of us has been united with Mary in the Advent experience. We have waited with perseverance and patience for the joy that surpasses all expectation: the Incarnation. As human beings "we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ." He is here, dwelling among us, a tangible, living sign of God's compact with us. Through His Son, God binds us forever to Himself. Our lives are renewed in this season when the dawn of human history itself points to a new horizon of freedom, liberty, and of unconditional love. My prayer for each of you is that the reality of God's presence among you brings grace and joy, optimism and a renewed sense of purpose to your lives.

On behalf of my brother priests and seminarians, may this Holy Season of Christmas bring you every grace and blessing. May you know and experience "tidings of great joy!" Thank you for the privilege to serve you in ministry and please know that we hold you close to our hearts in thought and prayer.

In Christ,

Fr. Tom

Pastoral Care of the Sick

Do you know a parishioner ill at home, homebound, or in a care facility who would like to receive Communion or anointing? Call the parish office, and we will arrange to have a priest or deacon visit. For a priest at Kaiser or Sequoia hospital, contact Fr. Martin Muruli through the nurse's station at either hospital.

Prayer Tree Network

Our Prayer Tree Network is a very special group of people who regularly pray for the needs of the community. All may request prayer for a special need or intention for healing, grieving, discernment, strength, comfort or support by contacting our Prayer Tree Network. The members spend some time every day in prayer for the requests that are received. We are seeking more members to pray in this way. If you are interested in finding out more about this valuable ministry, please email liz@stmatthiasparish.org or call 366-9544 x 2012.

SALT: Sharing and Learning Together

A group of parents have proposed a new program for our preschool-aged children during the 10:30 am Mass. SALT: Sharing and Learning Together will be led by a rotating team of parents in Room 1 of the Preschool Building. Parents will be invited to drop off their children before Mass begins. Children will engage in a brief catechetical session (10-15 minutes) and play time. Here are some photos from recent SALT sessions:

FISH: Friends in Service to Him

Another group of parents takes turns leading our FISH program for Kindergarten through 4th grade children. During the 10:30 am Mass, they are dismissed into the Merry Room with the volunteer catechist to read and learn about the Gospel reading for that day. They enjoy a craft or other activity which helps bring the Gospel message alive. These programs, SALT and FISH, are offered for the youngest members of our parish community through parent support and involvement. If you are interested in finding out more or volunteering, please contact Sabrina@stmatthiasparish.org for more information.

Sponsor-A-Family for Christmas

This year, in a partnership with our St. Vincent de Paul Conference, a family was identified through the regular Saturday food deliveries. Our high school youth group and their families purchased presents for each member of the family, mom, dad, 6 year old son, 5 year old daughter and 3 year old daughter. They gathered last Sunday night to sort and wrap the gifts, then they were delivered with Santa Claus on Monday, December 17th.

The family was greatly appreciative of the thoughtfulness. This project exemplifies the words of John the Baptist in Luke's Gospel, "Whoever has two tunics should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise." (Luke 3:11)

Hospitality

This Sunday, December 23rd, is our fourth Sunday hospitality. Please join us in Fr. Lacey Hall for coffee, donuts and juice following the 10:30 am Mass.

Our Call to Catechesis

SALT & FISH will be meeting today.

Understanding the Mass

The Second Vatican Council described the Catholic Mass as the “source and summit of our Christian life.” The St. Matthias Prayer and Worship Commission has designed opportunities for parishioners to learn more about the Mass.

While all of us go to Mass and participate in prayer and singing, do we fully understand each part of the liturgy, the movements and gestures of the priest, the role of the deacon and why those in the pews stand, kneel or sit? We hope these and other questions will be answered during these upcoming presentations.

Our next GIFT session, on January 6th from 11:30-1:30 pm will be titled, “Eucharist: Source and Summit” and will highlight for families attending the importance and significance of the Mass.

During each Mass on the weekend of January 12th and 13th, the reader will share the purposes and meanings of each part of our Mass. It is hope that each one of us will deepen our understanding of the Mass.

For those who would like to learn more and have questions about the Mass, please come to a special session presented by Deacon Rich on Sunday, January 20th at 9:30 a.m. and repeated at 11:45 a.m. in the parish hall. These 45-minute sessions will include a brief video by Bishop Robert Barron as well as an opportunity to pose questions.

Learn more about the Mass by--

1. Attending GIFT on January 6th
2. Attending Mass on January 12 or 13th
3. Attending a Presentation by Deacon Rich entitled, “The Mass: A Privileged Encounter: (Sunday, January 20th, 9:30 a.m. and repeated at 11:45 a.m. in Father Lacey Hall)
