St. Matthias is a Roman Catholic Community striving to respond to the call of Jesus through worship and sacraments, faith formation, service, and social opportunities.

Under the guidance of the parish administrator and pastoral staff, we seek to strengthen current lay leadership and develop and empower new leadership.

Although a small parish, we commit ourselves and parish programs to hospitality, generosity to those in need, and outreach to all those seeking a faith community.

As Catholics, we recognize the many challenges facing the Church, but we trust in the Holy Spirit to guide us into the future.

Fr. Tom's Column

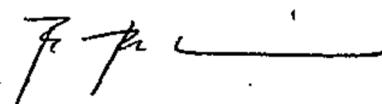

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On this Second Sunday of Lent, we celebrate Transfiguration Sunday. We see the revelation of Jesus to his disciples in his glory, a foretaste or foreshadowing of his glory in heaven. The language that Luke uses to describe this scene is rich soil for our Lenten reflection. He says that Jesus went up the mountain with Peter, James, and John. Ascending the mountain connotes an ascent to a holy place, holy ground where one communes with God. Luke then describes how the disciples were overcome with sleep. This harkens back to another dramatic scene in salvation history when the disciples were overcome with sleep. In the Garden at Gethsemane, where Jesus had asked his disciples to stand sentry with him, they fell asleep.

This experience can also be a metaphor for us in our spiritual lives: to not be attentive to how the Lord is speaking to us of the implications of the costs of our own discipleship. We can sometimes be asleep and not aware and present to how the Lord's grace and spirit is working in our lives. When the disciples "become fully awake" they are face to face with God's glory. Jesus speaks to them of his leaving this earthly life to enter into his Father's glory. The path to that glory will be wrought with danger, intense suffering, and death. Peter says, "Master, it is good that we are here." Peter is basking in the glory of Jesus Christ but also senses the power and connectivity with Moses and Elijah, two persons in Jewish history who had a profound relationship with God. This is a moment of deliverance: the promise that God made to Moses that He would deliver his people from the slavery of their captors comes full circle in the person of Jesus Christ.

Peter, naturally overcome with emotion at the scene revealed before him, does not want this scene to come to an end. He proposes to erect three tents: one for Moses, one for Elijah, and one for Jesus. Again, he does not yet understand what Jesus is communicating to him and his companions. Then, amidst all of this light, the Father admonishes them: "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." Thus, the road to glory is not going to be easy! Saint Thomas Aquinas wrote that "For a person to go straight along the road, he must have some knowledge of the end—just as an archer will not shoot an arrow straight unless he sees first the target...This is particularly necessary if the road is hard and rough, the going heavy, and the end delightful." [St. Thomas Aquinas, Summa theologiae, 3.q.45, a.1.]

This Thomistic insight helps to frame in a simple and concise way the very essence of the Lenten experience. We are called not to pitch our tents and bask in the comfortable and easy aspects of our faith but to look beyond to the ultimate prize: light beyond darkness, life beyond death. To keep our eyes firmly affixed upon this reality will help us to grapple with the necessary darkness and losses of this earthly life and to keep walking our pilgrim's way to the promise of eternal life. I found an example of this idea in a most unexpected place. In the Saturday, March 9th edition of the Sporting Green in the San Francisco Chronicle, columnist Ron Kroichick is describing Stephen Curry and Klay Thompson. He writes, "This season's home stretch offers a fresh, formidable challenge to the understated tone Curry and Thompson established in launching this powerhouse. They are reserved by nature, leaders by example, not prone to demonstrative outbursts. The way Thompson and Curry carry themselves is important. They tend to show humility when the Warriors are rolling and patience when they're struggling..." Good food for thought as we continue our journey this holy season!

Fasting and Abstinence During Lent

In the United States, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has declared that "the age of fasting is from the completion of the eighteenth year to the beginning of the sixtieth."

The USCCB also allows the substitution of some other form of penance for abstinence on all Fridays of the year, except for the Fridays of Lent. The rules for fasting and abstinence in the United States are:

- Every person 14 years of age or older must abstain from meat (and items made with meat) on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and every other Friday or Lent.
- Every person between the ages of 18 and 59 must fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting consists of one full meal per day, with two smaller meals that do not add up to a full meal, and no snacks.

Prayer Tree Network

Our Prayer Tree Network is a very special group of people who regularly pray for the needs of the community. All may request prayer for a special need or intention for healing, grieving, discernment, strength, comfort or support by contacting our Prayer Tree Network. The members spend some time every day in prayer for the requests that are received. We are seeking more members to pray in this way. Our Call to Prayer & Worship

SALT (Preschool) and FISH (K-4th) will meet Sunday during 10:30 am Mass.

Lenten Stations of the Cross & Soup Suppers

Stations of the Cross is a traditional devotion focusing on the events of the passion and suffering of Jesus, Our Savior. Stations of the Cross consists of 14 stations, highlighting the events of Jesus' last day as a human being.

Stations of the Cross is a mini-pilgrimage. As the group moves from station to station, the scene is described. Followers hear about the event along the way of the cross, pray, sing and meditate. It is common practice to offer this devotion on the Fridays of Lent.

St. Matthias will offer the Stations of the Cross each Friday during Lent at 6:00 pm followed by a simple soup supper. Each week, a different scriptural based text will be used. Leaders will provide booklets for participants to use as they pray the 14 stations.

All are welcome. We encourage parishioners to bring their own bowl and spoon. You may also choose to bring a vegetarian soup or bread and butter to share with the group. Drinks will be provided.

See the poster in the back of the Church for the schedule.

The Light is on for You

Tuesdays During Lent from 6-8 pm | St. Pius

The sacrament of Reconciliation will also be available at St. Matthias every Saturday at 3:45 pm.
