From Seminarians, John & Zach

Fr. Tom Martin is away through March 30th. In his absence, he asked seminarians, John Hwang and Zachary Alspaugh to submit reflections for our St. Matthias and St. Pius bulletins. Here are their contributions:

Our life is “C” between “B” and “D.” From birth to death, we make lots of choices. Our life is a matter of choices. How can we make better choices? In today’s gospel, the parable of the Prodigal Son illustrates to us how our choices will be good when they are in accord with the will of God. How can we be certain of God’s will?

After a process of discernment, we can be sure of God’s will for our decision when it brings us interior peace because it is only his will that gives us true peace. In his book, He Leadeth Me, Fr. Walter Ciszek S.J., writes his experience of discovering the will of God during World War II. Should he stay with his parish community in Albertyn, Poland or go to Russia, a place he had dreamed of bringing the Gospel? At first, he decided to stay with the community rather than follow a vague and largely idealistic vision of future service in Russia. However, after his decision, he discovered a loss of joy and enthusiasm as well as his strong spirit of faith in God’s involvement in his life.

In prayer he decided to follow God’s call, no matter where it might lead, without thought of self, doubts, or reasons of his own. He wanted to be totally open to hear God’s voice and follow his will. Only with the decision to go to Russia did he find the joy and interior peace that are marks of God’s true intervention in the soul. His mission to Russia was filled with suffering, imprisonment, hard labor in Siberia, and hunger, as well as tremendous experiences of grace.

God’s will is discerned by the Fruits of the Spirit that it brings. Peace of soul and joy of heart are two such signs, provided they follow upon total commitment and openness to God alone and not founded on one’s self desires. Remember the formula: Between Birth and Death there are many Choices to make. May they all be made according to God’s will. — John Hwang

Recently, brother John and I finished reading Jesuit Father Walter Ciszek’s extraordinary autobiography, “He Leadeth Me.” Father Ciszek spent 23 years confined in communist Russia in Soviet prisons and Siberian hard labor-camps. Throughout his imprisonment, in the face of injustice and brutality, Father Ciszek continued to hear confessions, conduct retreats, pray with prisoners and celebrate Holy Mass in secret. His book is a profound reflection on God’s providence and learning to do the will of God.

When we strive to know God’s will and to do it each day of our life, it becomes more than a source of eternal salvation, it becomes a source of deep joy and true happiness. Father Ciszek writes, “the plain and simple truth is that God’s will is what he actually wills to send us each day, in the way of circumstances, places, people, and problems.” In other words, no moment can be wasted, no opportunity missed, since each has a purpose in God’s plan.

It has been a blessing for John and me to serve at St. Pius and St. Matthias Churches on our pastoral year. We have been given invaluable context to help further our discernment, for which we are deeply grateful. The promise of priesthood has been presented to us on numerous occasions in class rooms, at school plays, at school sports events, at men and women’s social club functions, at senior community events, at fiestas, at baptisms, at weddings, at funeral and through outreach. Your church communities are passionate for the cause of building up the Kingdom of God. Only by a lively faith can we live in peace among the tensions of the world. Faith in God’s providence and learning to do the will of God is how we persevere and flourish. —Zach Alspaugh

Fasting and Abstinence During Lent

In the United States, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has declared that "the age of fasting is from the completion of the eighteenth year to the beginning of the sixtieth."

The USCCB also allows the substitution of some other form of penance for abstinence on all Fridays of the year, except for the Fridays of Lent. The rules for fasting and abstinence in the United States are:

- Every person 14 years of age or older must abstain from meat (and items made with meat) on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and every other Friday or Lent.
- Every person between the ages of 18 and 59 must fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting consists of one full meal per day, with two smaller meals that do not add up to a full meal, and no snacks.

Prayer Tree Network

Our Prayer Tree Network is a very special group of people who regularly pray for the needs of the community. All may request prayer for a special need or intention for healing, grieving, discernment, strength, comfort or support by contacting our Prayer Tree Network. The members spend some time every day in prayer for the requests that are received. We are seeking more members to pray in this way. If you are interested in finding out more about this valuable ministry, please email liz@stmatthiasparish.org or call 366-9544 x 2012.

Lenten Stations of the Cross & Soup Suppers

Stations of the Cross is a traditional devotion focusing on the events of the passion and suffering of Jesus, Our Savior. Stations of the Cross consists of 14 stations, highlighting the events of Jesus' last day as a human being.

Stations of the Cross is a mini-pilgrimage. As the group moves from station to station, the scene is described. Followers hear about the event along the way of the cross, pray, sing and meditate. It is common practice to offer this devotion on the Fridays of Lent.

St. Matthias will offer the Stations of the Cross each Friday during Lent at 6:00 pm followed by a simple soup supper. Each week, a different scriptural based text will be used. Leaders will provide booklets for participants to use as they pray the 14 stations.

All are welcome. We encourage parishioners to bring their own bowl and spoon. You may also choose to bring a vegetarian soup or bread and butter to share with the group. Drinks will be provided.

Friday, March 29th Stations of the Cross will be hosted by the Following Christ group and will use the "Stopping Along the Way" Stations of the Cross.

The Light is on for You

Tuesdays During Lent from 6-8 pm | St. Pius

This Lent, all parishes in the Archdiocese of San Francisco will undertake an initiative to encourage greater participation in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, especially among those who have not received this sacrament recently. "The Light is on for You" began in the Washington D.C. metro area and has spread across the country over the last decade. Archbishop Cordileone says, "Ultimately, the 'light being on' throughout the whole Archdiocese is a sign to our people of God's desire for reconciliation with them and His great delight in bestowing His mercy upon them."

The sacrament of Reconciliation will also be available at St. Matthias every Saturday at 3:45 pm.

CRS Rice Bowl: Encounter Lent

RCIA—The Scrutinies

At the Rite of Election on Sunday, March 10, several hundred catechumens and candidates for the Sacraments of Initiation gathered at St. Mary's Cathedral. Archbishop Cordileone blessed them and asked everyone in the Archdiocese to keep them in prayer as they continue their spiritual journey to the Easter Vigil.

At our 10:30 Mass on the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent, our catechumen (elect), Jessica Sanchez will participate in the Scrutinies. At the Easter Vigil, Jessica will be Baptized, then receive Confirmation and Eucharist.

The Scrutinies are ancient rites of the Church which are intended to "heal all that is sinful and bring out, then strengthen, all that is upright, strong and good" in the elect. These Scrutinies (prayers) are about the overwhelming grace of God and grace-filled encounters with the healing power of the Spirit.

Please keep our St. Matthias catechumen, Jessica Sanchez, and our candidates Jessica Talavera, Kathy Sweeney and Lisa Cox in your prayers.
