Thirtieth
SUNDAY
in Ordinary Time
October 24, 2021

Although they go forth weeping,
carrying the seed to be sown,
they shall come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves.

Psalm 126:6

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to His people on earth. Lord God heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father; receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Reading I

Jer 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD:
Shout with joy for Jacob,
exult at the head of the nations;
proclaim your praise and say:
The LORD has delivered his people,
the remnant of Israel.
Behold, I will bring them back
from the land of the north;
I will gather them from the ends of the world,
with the blind and the lame in their midst,
the mothers and those with child;
they shall return as an immense throng.
They departed in tears,
but I will console them and guide them;
I will lead them to brooks of water,
on a level road, so that none shall stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
Ephraim is my first-born.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Reading II

Heb 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters:
Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him:
You are my son:
this day I have begotten you;
just as he says in another place:
You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melchizedek.

Alleluia

Cf. 2 Tm 1:10

R. Alleluia, alleluia.
Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging.

On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say,

"Jesus, son of David, have pity on me."

And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more,

"Son of David, have pity on me."

Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."

So they called the blind man, saying to him,

"Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you."

He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."

Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

World Mission Sunday - Oct 23-24

We are celebrating World Mission Sunday this weekend. Every World Mission Sunday is a reminder to us of our mandate to be a missionary. As Pope Francis in his message for this occasion says, "the history of evangelization began with the Lord's own passionate desire to call and enter into friendly dialogue with everyone, just as they are." This should "impel us to mission" irrespective of the times and situations. What we share is what we have experienced like the Apostles and first Christians. What we have experienced should not be kept under a bushel basket, but rather on the lamp stand. Please consider a donation to World Mission Sunday this weekend to continue to work begun by Christ and carried on by every day evangelists like you.

Prayer Shawl Ministry!

Calling all crafters to join our lively group which meets monthly. We work on projects to give to parishioners, family and friends in times of celebration and comfort. We work on projects at home and meet monthly to share techniques, tips and to bless our projects. We crochet, quilt, knit, embroider, sew, and weave hats, scarves, shawls, and lap robes in addition to bibs for baptisms. You can join us even if you cannot attend the meetings on the third Tuesday of each month, 3:00 pm in the Merry Room. Contact Laurie Coulter lpmcoulter@yahoo.com or call 367-8229.

St. Matthias Church is open Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 am - 5:00 pm for personal prayer. The Church parking lot is available once again for parking during the week. Office Hours are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday from 9:00 am - 3:00 pm, Wednesday from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Sunday 9:45 am Mass Moving Indoors November 7th

Thank you to all who completed the one question survey which asked, "In preparation for the eventuality of celebrating all Masses indoors this fall, what accommodations might you suggest that would make you feel most comfortable attending?"

The majority of the sixty responses received expressed a level of comfort with the measures that we are currently taking at the 5:00 pm Saturday night Mass including social distancing of at least 3 feet, wearing masks indoors, and ventilation provided by open doors and windows.

Our Prayer and Worship Commission met on Oct 7th to discuss the results and make a recommendation to Fr. Dave. We are the "Body of Christ" and we will help each other to gather, celebrate, and give thanks to God in as safe and reverent a manner as possible. Our 9:45 am Sunday Mass will move indoors on November 7, 2021.

The following protocols currently employed at the Saturday 5:00 pm Mass will be followed for the Sunday 9:45 am Mass:

- Masks must be worn indoors at all times (regardless of vaccination status)
- To help us maintain 3 ft of social distancing between households, there are signs in the pews. White signs indicate open pews (available for seating) while red signs indicate pews which are closed. Individuals sit in smaller pews toward the front, while families sit in larger pews toward the back.

- Ushers and Greeters will assist with seating as needed. Additional seating will be arranged in the back of the Church and/or Fr. Lacey Hall. We have speakers in the Hall so that Mass can be heard.
- Readers will provide reminders at the beginning of Masses.
- Windows and doors will be opened to ensure good ventilation.
- Parishioners will have the option of parking in our lot, tuning to 88.7 (?)FM to listen to Mass, then walking to the back doors for Holy Communion.
- The Priest, Deacon, and Eucharistic Ministers will bring Communion to individuals in their pews or chairs.

Some parishioners asked in the survey if we will resume the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses on Sundays? The answer is no and here is why. We need a schedule between St. Matthias and St. Charles which enables one priest to preside at all Masses. The current schedule allows one priest to cover the 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses at St. Charles while being able to celebrate the 9:45 a.m. Mass at St. Matthias.

Our primary concern is safety and the importance of the St. Matthias community gathering together in worship whether it is in person or via live stream. Our thanks to Charles Gillet and his team for continuing to provide live stream services.

We appreciate your feedback and will continue to keep you informed through our Sunday bulletin and The Matthias.

Masses of Remembrance - Nov 6-7th

The St. Matthias Community along with The Family Support Group Invite parishioners to submit the names of friends and relatives who have passed from this life into the next since Nov 1, 2020. Loved ones will be honored at our annual Masses in Remembrance. Masses will be offered November 6th at 5:00 p.m. and November 7th at 9:45 a.m. Both Masses will be celebrated inside the Church.

Loved ones will be honored at our annual Masses of Remembrance on Saturday, Nov 6th at 5:00 pm and Sunday, Nov 7th at 9:45 am. Both Masses will be celebrated inside the Church. We remember those who have left this life and recognize that they are now in the Communion of Saints. We are also preparing a video remembrance to be shown at the Masses. To include your loved one, please email and send a photo to lisa@stmatthiasparish.org by Oct 31st for inclusion.

Hats & Scarves Collection

Our Prayer Shawl group is sponsoring a collection of handmade hats and scarves for unhoused individuals in early December. Crochet, knitted, or woven hats and scarves for men, women, and children, can be made with acrylic or wool yarn (preferred). Fringed fleece scarves are also welcome. Desired length for adult scarf is 70 inches. A basket will be placed in a back of the Church until November 21st for you to drop off your donations. The community will then bless all items received at a Mass before they are distributed locally. Questions? Call Laurie Coulter at 650-367-8229

Announcing an upcoming Sock Drive for the Homeless

We will be collecting new, packaged socks for both men and women, to be donated to the homeless community served by the Catholic Worker House and Fair Oaks Community Center Homeless Services in Redwood City. Clean, warm socks are a basic necessity for those who live unhoused, especially during winter months. Your thoughtful generosity is very much appreciated. Members of our SVdP Conference will be collecting the socks both before and after both Masses on October 30 and 31st.

SVdP Fifth Sunday Collection - October

30-31st Members from our Conference will speak at each Mass on the weekend of October 30-31st highlighting some of the ways your donations are being used all year round. Our parish Fifth Sunday Collection is our primary source of income to continue helping our brothers and sisters in need. Without your generous support, our work could not continue. As the need for help in our County continues to increase, so does our need for financial support. We sincerely appreciate all you have done and continue to do to help us live out our mission to the poor.

Food Collection Our food collection for our local families will continue each week. Please note the list of most needed items: soups, pasta sauces, macaroni and cheese, rice, cookies, canned meats such as beef stew, chili, etc. and cookies. Your generous support helps fill our bags each week and we are most grateful.
